The Inventory & Appraisal filed 07/01/09 is incomplete at item 5 regarding the Property tax certificate. 2. The accounting is incomplete pursuant to Probate Code § 1061. The Accounting states that the beginning property on hand is $0; however, an Inventory & Appraisal has been filed in this matter reflecting assets of the estate in the amount of $166,000.00. The Accounting further does not list gains/losses on sales of property and other information required pursuant to Probate Code § 1061. 3. The Petitioner states that the statutory compensation to the Administrator is $471.08, which is based upon the remaining property on hand. The fee base for determining statutory fees is to be determined as follows: Inventory & Appraisal + receipts + gains on sales – losses on sales. Since the accounting does not state the values of any of those items, there is no way to determine the correct fee base or statutory fee. Need updated accounting pursuant to Probate Code § 1061. 4. Schedule B of the Petition indicates that real property of the estate was sold, however the Petition does not list or describe this sale. Pursuant to California Rules of Court 7.250 all actions taken without prior court approval under IAEA if notice of proposed action was required must be listed and described in the Petition. 5. The Petition does not make a statement regarding the notices required under Probate Code § 9202(b) and (c) – to the California Victims Compensation Board and The Franchise Tax Board.

SUMMARY (Cont'd):

Petitioner states the Assignment of Assets to Trust provides that it was made, in part, to provide a basis for the instant petition. Petitioner requests that this Court confirm that title in and to the assets listed in paragraph 6 is in Dirk B. Paloutzian, as Trustee of the William E. Crumpacker and Carolyn M. Crumpacker Revocable Trust dated February 28, 2000.

Regarding Hiring of Counsel by Petitioner: Probate Code §15687 relates to compensation to a trustee who is also an attorney. Petitioner Dirk B. Paloutzian is an attorney at law and is a shareholder in the law firm of Baker Manock & Jensen, PC, his counsel of record herein. Pursuant to Probate Code §17200(b)(21), Petitioner requests the court enter order: i) authorizing him to receive reasonable compensation for his services as Trustee as provided in Section 2.a. of Article Nine of the Trust instrument; and ii) authorizing the payment of reasonable compensation to Baker Manock & Jensen, PC, for legal service performed for the trustee.

Petitioner waives and renounces all interest in compensation paid to Baker Manock & Jensen, PC, and agrees not to share in such attorney's fees, either directly or indirectly. These requests benefit the trust because of the familiarity of Baker Manock & Jensen, PC's, attorneys with this matter, and the efficiencies that result from such counsel representing the trustee herein. If Petitioner is required to engage other counsel to assist him in the administration of the trust, it is unlikely that such representation could be performed as efficiently as by attorneys who are already familiar with the case.

Procedural allegations: Petitioner provides the names and addresses of all persons entitled to notice pursuant to Probate Code §17003.

Petitioner prays for an order:

1. Confirming that title in and to the following Trust assets is in Dirk B. Paloutzian, as Trustee of the William E. Crumpacker and Carolyn M. Crumpacker Revocable Trust created on February 28, 2000:
 - A. Bank of America Regular Savings Account xxx
 - B. Union Bank Tiered Interest Checking Account xxx
 - C. Cantella Brokerage Account xxx
 - D. Wells Fargo Bank Prime Checking Account xxx
 - E. Wells Fargo Bank Preferred Rate Savings xxx
 - F. Wells Fargo Bank Certificate of Deposit xxx
 - G. Bank of America Tiered Interest Checking Account xxx
 - H. All stock in Wells Fargo Bank owned by William E. Crumpacker or Carolyn M. Crumpacker
 - J. All of William E. Crumpacker's right, title, and interest in and to all of the property of whatever kind – with the exception of retirement accounts, annuities, policies of life insurance, and like assets – owned by William E. Crumpacker, including, without limitation: real property; stocks, bonds, mutual funds, and other financial investments; cash, business interests; and tangible personal property
2. Authorizing Dirk B. Paloutzian to receive reasonable compensation for his services as Trustee as provided in Section 2.a. of Article Nine of the Trust instrument.
3. Authorizing payment of reasonable compensation to Baker Manock & Jensen, PC, for legal services performed for the trustee; and
4. For such other orders as the Court deems proper.

Byrum DOD: 3/19/2012		WELLS FARGO BANK , Successor Co-Trustee of the BYRUM C. AND WANDA H. BINGHAM FAMILY TRUST dated 4/1/1998, is Petitioner. Petitioner states: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Byrum and Wanda Bingham entered into the Trust Agreement on 4/1/1998 and assigned to the Trust substantially all of their assets; over the years, Byrum and Wanda amended and restated the Trust several times, with the most recent being the Tenth Amendment and Restatement of the Trust (copy attached as Exhibit A); While they are living, Byrum and Wanda are the sole beneficiaries of the Trust, and as Co-Settlers of the Trust, may direct discretionary distributions from the Trust; the Co-Trustees St. Louis and Wells Fargo have full discretion to make distributions of Trust principal; On 11/22/2011, the Court appointed St. Louis as Conservator of the Person of both Byrum and Wanda (Case #11CEPR00949 and 11CEPR00950), and there is currently no conservator appointed for the estate of either Byrum or Wanda; St. Louis has accepted his appointment as Co-Trustee; the Ex Parte Order for Instructions to Appoint Successor Co-Trustees filed 10/26/2011 finds David J. St. Louis and Wells Fargo Bank are appointed Successor Co-Trustees of the Trust as provided for in Article Tenth of the Trust; Wells Fargo filed its conditional acceptance with the Court on 12/21/2011 (copy attached as Exhibit B); [Note: Wells Fargo subsequently filed on 3/16/2012 Trustee's Unconditional Acceptance of Trust and agrees to act as Co-Trustee]; ~Please see additional page~	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS: 1. Need proposed order. Note: Wells Fargo has unconditionally accepted the Trust and agrees to act as Co-Trustee per the Trustee's Unconditional Acceptance of Trust filed 3/16/2012. Per the Conditional Acceptance of Appointment as Successor Trustee filed 12/21/2011, Wells Fargo initially declined to accept appointment as Co-Trustee of the Trust until entry of an order on the instant Petition , in which Wells Fargo requests the Court find: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> the Court approves Wells Fargo's proposed fee structure of 0.75% of the Trust assets; and the Court orders that all of those fees be paid directly to Wells Fargo without any apportionment or sharing with the other Co-Trustee, David St. Louis. First Supplement to Petition filed 3/16/2012 states due to the circumstances that have developed and out of concern for the Bingham's, Wells Fargo accepts without condition its position as Co-Trustee of the Bingham Trust.

Petitioner Wells Fargo requests instructions regarding the allocation of Co-Trustee's responsibilities between itself and St. Louis, as follows:

Investment Plan: The Trust holds substantial real and personal property assets, including (a) commercial real property in Clovis, currently leased to an automobile dealership producing income of ~$65,000.00 per month; (b) residential real property in Fresno where the Bingham's reside; (c) investment accounts; (d) cash; and (e) tangible personal property;

- Wells Fargo submits that the Co-Trustees must create a comprehensive investment plan for the Trust assets, and proposes the responsibility for creating the plan be allocated equally to Wells Fargo and St. Louis; specifically, that the Co-Trustees agree upon and formulate a written Investment Policy Statement that best suits the needs of the Trust beneficiaries; any changes to the Investment Policy Statement would require the agreement of both Co-Trustees;
- The bulk of the Trust's liquid assets, which exceeds $35.0 million, has been for several years with brokerage subsidiary Wells Fargo Advisors, and are held in a variety of forms including securities, bonds, mutual funds and cash; Wells Fargo also holds various deposit accounts totaling $700,000, along with an Assets Management Account of ~$2 million; these assets were managed by the Bingham's in their capacity as Co-Trustees of the Trust;
- Given the nature and complexity of the assets now on deposit with Wells Fargo, Wells Fargo requests the Court allocate to it the day-to-day management of the Trust's liquid assets; such administration would be consistent with the terms of the Asset Management Agreement signed by the Bingham's in June 2010 as well as the July 2011 Addendum.

Commercial Real Property: Wells Fargo proposes St. Louis be allocated the responsibility of administering the Trust's commercial lot in Clovis that produces an income of $65,000.00 each month, but with assistance and input from Wells Fargo, using its internal software tracking systems; Wells Fargo requests the payments be sent directly to Wells Fargo and that it be allocated responsibility for receiving, tracking and paying the payments and due dates; and that Wells Fargo be allocated responsibility for (a) maintaining records of all receipts and disbursements; (b) obtaining property valuations to ensure adequate insurance, and (c) ensuring necessary repairs, renovations and improvements are completed by licensed insured contractors; Wells Fargo requests that both it and St. Louis be allocated responsibility for (a) negotiating and agreeing upon an extension or modification of the lease currently in place, (b) negotiating and agreeing upon any new lease of premises, (c) tracking and addressing environmental or tenant related issues and (d) negotiating sale of property if appropriate.

Residential Real Property: The Trust holds residential real property located in Fresno (Sanders Court property) and Wells Fargo proposes St. Louis be allocated responsibility for administration of this asset with assistance from Wells Fargo, such as Wells Fargo be responsible for tracking payment due dates, securing and maintaining adequate insurance, ensuring repairs, renovations and improvements are completed by licensed insured contractors; any contract for upkeep, maintenance or repair of Sanders property would be negotiated and executed by both Wells Fargo and St. Louis;

Elder Services: In June 2010, the Bingham's signed an Asset Management Agreement (copy attached as Exhibit C), and in June 2011 they signed an addendum Asset Management Agreement Addendum for Elder Services (copy attached as Exhibit D), both of which confer on Wells Fargo full discretion as to the management of the Trust assets in a manner consistent with the Investment Policy Statement previously signed by the Bingham's, a copy of which was provided to Co-Trustee St. Louis; Wells Fargo agreed to assist the Bingham's with such matters as health care planning, coordination of professional services, tax preparation and payment services and asset and liability management; Wells Fargo's elder services professionals are available 24 hours a day 7 days a week to provide assistance if the Bingham's or St. Louis need help.

Tax Preparation and Related Duties: In that Wells Fargo proposes it have custody of the Trust's assets, collect all income, pay Trust expenses and make Trust distributions, Wells Fargo agrees to prepare periodic accounts and provide them to Bingham and St. Louis; Wells Fargo also proposes it be allocated authority to prepare the federal and state fiduciary income tax returns, Bingham's personal income tax returns, gift tax returns, estate tax returns and to pay taxes and participate in any estate or income tax audit, and will work with St. Louis to provide the necessary information.

Payment of Expenses: Wells Fargo requests it be allocated responsibility for payment of Trust related expenses; Wells Fargo generally provides this services including payment of Bingham's personal and household expenses, medical expenses, expenses related to commercial and residential property and payment to Bingham's caregiver agency; Wells Fargo requires the Court authorize it to continue to do so.

Petitioner Wells Fargo requests instructions regarding Establishment of Trust Account, as follows:

- Presently, pursuant to the agreements signed by the Bingham, Wells Fargo Advisors' managers have discretionary authority with respect to most of the Trust's investment portfolio, enabling Wells Fargo to actively manage the accounts consistent with the Bingham's Investment Policy Statement; however, there are funds on hand of ~$7.5 million that are not subject to that discretionary authority, thus this amount of Trust assets is not and cannot be managed by either Wells Fargo or St. Louis at this time;
- Wells Fargo requests instructions from the Court and approval to immediately establish a trust account at Wells Fargo with their Investment Management and Trust Department titled Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. and David J. St. Louis as Co-Trustees of the BYRUM C. AND WANDA H. BINGHAM FAMILY TRUST dated 4/1/1998 as Amended and Restated;
- Wells Fargo requests the Court order that all assets of the Trust be transferred to the Trust account to allow Wells Fargo's trust personnel to oversee and manage all of the Trust assets; the establishment of the Trust account and transfer of all assets are of paramount importance to protect the interest of the Bingham and to the Co-Trustee's ability to provide accurate periodic statements of account; to date Wells Fargo has been unable to obtain St. Louis' signature on the paperwork necessary to open the Trust Account and transfer assets thereto.

Petitioner Wells Fargo requests interpretation of Trust provision governing Trustee compensation, as follows:

- Paragraph 11.01(B) of the Tenth Amendment to Trust provides:
 - Upon assumption of the duties as Successor Trustee, any individual or corporate Co-Trustee or Trustees hereunder shall receive compensation for services rendered in an amount not to exceed the prevailing fees then being charged by corporate Trustees in the city wherein or the city nearest to where the Trustee is located for the administration of accounts of a character similar to this one, provided, however, that compensation to any individual Successor Trustee or Co-Trustee shall not exceed a reasonable amount for services actually rendered.
- A copy of Wells Fargo published fee schedule is attached at Exhibit E; Wells Fargo proposes it receive compensation for its services as Co-Trustee in the annual amount of 75 basis points;
- Please refer to First Supplement to (1) Petition for Instructions Regarding Allocation of Co-Trustees' Responsibilities and for Order allowing Establishment of Trust Account; and (2) Petition for Interpretation of Trust Provision Governing Trustee Compensation filed 3/16/2012, below, for further discussion of Wells Fargo's request regarding trustee compensation.

~Please see additional page~

Petitioner prays for an Order of the Court as follows:

1. Allocating to Wells Fargo and Mr. St. Louis as Co-Trustees the responsibility of creating, maintaining and, if appropriate, modifying a written Investment Policy Statement;
2. Allocating to Wells Fargo the responsibility of the day-to-day administration and management of the Trust's liquid assets in a manner consistent with the written Investment Policy Statement, subject to the requirement that Wells Fargo shall provide Mr. St. Louis with monthly statements of account and transaction receipts, if he so requests;
3. Allocating to Wells Fargo the following responsibilities in regard to the commercial real property located in Clovis: (a) receipt and collection of the monthly rental payments from the lessee, (b) payment of real estate taxes, (c) maintaining records of all receipts and disbursements, (d) obtaining current property valuations to ensure the premises are adequately insured (including periodic appraisals), (e) ensuring that necessary repairs, renovations and improvements are completed by licensed, insured and bonded contractors, and (f) payment of insurance premiums;
4. Allocating to Mr. St. Louis and Wells Fargo, jointly and in regard to the commercial real property, responsibility for (a) negotiating and agreeing upon any extension or modification of the lease currently in place, (b) negotiating and agreeing upon any new lease of the premises, (c) tracking and addressing any environmental or tenant-related issues that may arise in regards to the property, and (d) if appropriate, negotiating and coordinating the sale of the property;
5. Allocating to Mr. St. Louis responsibility for the administration of the residential real property located at Sanders Court, with assistance from Wells Fargo; Wells Fargo shall among other things track payment due dates, pay real estate taxes, pay for maintenance and repairs, obtain current property valuations to ensure the premises are adequately insured (including obtaining periodic appraisals) and secure and maintain adequate insurance; Mr. St. Louis and Wells Fargo shall jointly execute any documents necessary to negotiate and coordinate the sale of the property and any major renovations, improvements, maintenance and repair of the property; Wells Fargo and Mr. St. Louis will jointly determine that necessary repairs, renovations and improvements are completed by licensed, insured and bonded contractors;
6. Authorizing Wells Fargo to assist Mr. St. Louis, as needed by Mr. St. Louis or the Bingham, in the provision of personal services to the Bingham and to do such other services as required or requested by the Bingham, as set forth in the June 2011 Addendum;
7. Allocating to Wells Fargo responsibility for the preparation and filing of any and all federal and state fiduciary income tax returns, the Bingham's personal income tax returns, gift tax returns, estate tax returns (when needed), payment of taxes from the Trust, participation in any estate or income tax audit, and preparation of any and all Trust accountings;
8. Allocating to Wells Fargo responsibility for the payment of Trust expenses and the Bingham's personal expenses;
9. Authorizing Wells Fargo to immediately establish a trust account at Wells Fargo with their Investment Management and Trust Department in the name of WELLS FARGO BANK, N.A. and DAVID J. ST. LOUIS as Co-Trustees of the BYRUM C. AND WANDA H. BINGHAM FAMILY TRUST dated 4/1/1998 as Amended and Restated, and to transfer to that account all of the Trust's assets currently housed in the Wells Fargo Advisor's brokerage accounts, at Bank of America, in the Wells Fargo Asset Management Account, or elsewhere;
10. Authorizing Wells Fargo to charge and receive compensation for its services as Co-Trustee in the annual amount of 75 basis points which equates to the annual rate of 0.75% of the periodic market value of the managed assets, and to make changes or adjustments based on any changes or adjustments to Wells Fargo's published schedule of fees; and
11. Determining that the compensation of any individual Successor Co-Trustee is not related to Wells Fargo's published fee schedule, but rather shall be in an amount that does not exceed a reasonable amount for services actually rendered.

Reply to Petition for Instructions and Petition for Interpretation filed by Wells Fargo Bank, and Petition for Instructions Re: Allocation of Authority, Responsibilities and Duties Between Co-Trustees; Allocation of Trustee Compensation Between Trustee; and for Order Appointing Alternate Corporate Co-Trustee filed 3/14/2012 by David J. St. Louis, Co-Trustee, states:

- In that St. Louis is in substantial disagreement with the matters set forth in the Petition of Wells Fargo, St. Louis presents his own Petition for Instructions and prayer for relief as a separate petition independent from Wells Fargo's Petition;
- Wells Fargo disclaimed appointment by the provisions of its Conditional Acceptance of Appointment as Successor Trustee filed on 12/23/2011, and only St. Louis is currently a duly appointed and acting Trustee;
- In its conditional acceptance, Wells Fargo, although purporting to accept the Court's appointment as Co-Trustee, specifically made its acceptance subject to a "condition precedent" that the Court determine that (1) Wells Fargo is entitled to compensation for its services based upon its "current fee schedules as they may be changed and modified from time to time;" and (2) the compensation so determined be paid solely to Wells Fargo without apportionment to any other Co-Trustee (St. Louis);
- The conditional acceptance then goes on to state that should the Court enter an order inconsistent with the above two conditions, such an order of the Court constitutes the failure of a condition precedent to Wells Fargo's acceptance of appointment as Co-Trustee" which will cause Wells Fargo to decline appointment as a Co-Trustee of the Trust; thus, the bank has declined the office of Co-Trustee until the Court enters an order which complies with the above two requirements;
- Wells Fargo did not even file a petition for the entry of the order required by the conditional acceptance until 2/22/2012, which petition will not be heard until 4/2/2012; thus, contrary to the allegations contained in Wells Fargo's Petition, Wells Fargo is not an incumbent Trustee of the Trust; never has been an incumbent Trustee of the Trust; and will not be an incumbent Trustee unless and until the Court enters an order approving compensation for Wells Fargo in accordance with its current and future fee schedules, and ordering that the compensation for Wells Fargo not be shared with the other Co-Trustee; accordingly, until such time as the court order required by Wells Fargo is entered, St. Louis is and will remain the sole incumbent Trustee of the Trust;
- Please refer to Part II, Factual Background, on Page 3 of Reply for history narrative, including among other things, that the Bingham have been determined to be incapacitated by the Court, and St. Louis, who has been their close friend and confidant for 30 years (and who is the 1st alternate agent on their Advance Healthcare Directives), is the Conservator of the Persons of both of the Bingham [Note: Byrum Bingham died on 3/19/2012, thus his conservatorship terminated by operation of law]; that the Bingham's wealth accumulation from their auto dealership (approximate asset valuation listed) had been financially managed in a longstanding banking and brokerage relationship with Bank of America; in early 2010, the Bingham were introduced to a financial advisor, Jarrod Martinez, at Bank of America who later left that bank and began working for Wells Fargo Advisors, and he continued to have contact and discussions with the Bingham that resulted in their dissolving their longstanding relationship with Bank of America and moving their securities to Wells Fargo Advisors; the last transition documents were executed by the Bingham in July 2010, and on 3/21/2011, the Bingham restated their living trust to appoint Wells Fargo and St. Louis as Co-Trustees at such time as neither of the Bingham could act in the capacity as Trustee;
- Although Wells Fargo began work with respect to the Petition for Instructions shortly after the entry of the Order appointing it as Co-Trustee (signed on 10/26/2011), it was not until 2/22/2012 that the Petition for Instructions for an order satisfying Wells Fargo's conditions precedent was filed; throughout this interim of 3 months, Wells Fargo, with full knowledge that it had not accepted its appointment, routinely conducted itself as Co-Trustee, assumed authority as a Co-Trustee, and represent to third parties that it was a Co-Trustee;

~Please see additional page~

- From the date of entry of the Order appointing Co-Trustees (signed on 10/26/2011) until the end of December 2011, very little contact transpired between St. Louis and Wells Fargo; however, the sum and substance of those few contacts and of their meeting on 12/29/2011 was that Wells Fargo had every intention of controlling every aspect of the administration of the Trust to the exclusion of St. Louis, and to appropriate to itself alone as a fee, the entire fair market value of the "bundle of services" from the bank which was required to be provided in this matter;
- It was clear that Wells Fargo had determined to push aside the Co-Trustee whom the Bingham's had appointed to monitor, oversee and work with the bank in its capacity as corporate Trustee; in the 2-month interim between the initial meeting and the filing of Wells Fargo's petition, Wells Fargo apparently reconsidered and softened its position with regard to totally excluding St. Louis from the administration of the Trust, probably due in part to the fact that St. Louis and his attorney Robert Sullivan made it clear to the Wells Fargo that St. Louis would not stand aside but would fully and faithfully discharge his responsibilities to the Bingham's;
- St. Louis would have no reservations concerning entrusting all cash management, bookkeeping and accounting to Wells Fargo as a logical choice to discharge those responsibilities; however, Wells Fargo's personal and its attorney have consistently said their desire is to cooperate with St. Louis, but most of Wells Fargo's actions have been to the contrary (please refer to Page 9 for several specific instances);
- St. Louis has offered his full cooperation with the corporate fiduciary (except to the extent of Wells Fargo's attempts to push him aside), and will continue to offer his full cooperation with Wells Fargo or any other corporate fiduciary who holds the office of Co-Trustee because it was clearly the intent of the Bingham's that their appointed Co-Trustees act cooperatively together.

David St. Louis Petitions the Court for Instructions, as follows:

Allocation of Responsibilities: Given the respective strengths of the two Co-Trustees, St. Louis submits that the responsibilities should be allocated as follows:

1. Allocate primarily to Wells Fargo the custody and management of cash, including collections, disbursements, bookkeeping and accounting, except that St. Louis should be authorized and directed to maintain a trust bank account under his custody and control which would enable St. Louis to discharge his allocated duties and responsibilities in the event of a future failure of cooperation on the part of the corporate Co-Trustee; copies of bank statements and a complete listing of receipts and disbursements should be provided by the Co-Trustee maintaining the account to the other Co-Trustee on a monthly basis; signature of both Co-Trustees should be required on any individual disbursement over $10,000.00 or for any commitment of regular monthly or other periodic disbursements over $5,000.00;
2. Allocate primarily to Wells Fargo the responsibility for management of the securities portfolios of the Trust, with the provisos that (a) all investment policies for the Trust be jointly adopted by the Co-Trustees' unanimous consent; (b) all selection of asset managers other than the corporate Co-Trustee be made by the unanimous decision of the Co-Trustees approved in writing; (c) the Co-Trustees be ordered to meet at least monthly to review investment performance and propose investment decisions for the coming month; and (d) copies of all securities account statements be provided on a monthly or more frequent basis simultaneously to both Co-Trustees;

3. Allocate to St. Louis responsibility for the care, preservation and management of the commercial real estate, including the collection of rent and the making of all routine disbursements for the benefit of the property, with the proviso that (a) all decisions with respect to the negotiation and renewal of the existing lease; (b) any decisions with respect to leasing to an alternate tenant; (c) and all decisions with respect to encumbrance, sale or other alienation or hypothecation of the property be unanimously by the Co-Trustees, and that no such actions shall be taken unless and until they have been approved in writing by both Co-Trustees;
4. Allocate to St. Louis responsibility for the care, maintenance and preservation of the Bingham's personal residence, and he should be authorized to pay all expenses with respect thereto from the Trust bank account maintained by him, with the proviso that any decisions concerning the lease, sale, encumbrance or disposition of the residence be unanimously made by both Co-Trustees;
5. Allocate solely to St. Louis responsibility for the care and welfare of [Mrs.] Bingham personally and the management of [her] personal affairs.
6. The Court should order that any further unilateral acts of recalcitrance or non-cooperation on the part of any Co-Trustee will subject that Trustee to immediate removal.

Allocation of Compensation:

St. Louis requests the Court enter an order allocating compensation between St. Louis and the corporate fiduciary, two-thirds to the corporate fiduciary and one-third to St. Louis as full compensation for all services rendered by him for and on behalf of the Bingham's, including all services rendered by St. Louis in his capacity as conservator of the person of [Mrs. Bingham.]

St. Louis states:

- Wells Fargo appears to propose that St. Louis be compensated in some unspecified manner in addition to the .75% fee claimed by Wells Fargo; the problem with this position is that it is contrary both to the terms of the trust instrument and to California law with respect to the compensation of Co-Trustees; furthermore, this position unnecessarily increases the amount of the trustee's fees to be borne by the Trust;
- Wells Fargo's position fails to take into account the provisions of the first portion of Section 11.01B of the Trust which clearly provide that the Trustees (plural) are to receive compensation for services rendered in an amount not to exceed the prevailing fees then being charged by corporate trustees in the Fresno area; the Trust is clear in its mandate that one trustee fee calculated in accordance with the prevailing corporate trustee fee schedule should be paid to both Trustees -- one fee must be allocated between the corporate Co-Trustee and the individual Co-Trustee.
- Wells Fargo's position is contrary to California law (please refer to Memorandum of Points and Authorities filed 3/14/2012) which provides that where the trust instrument specifies that the fee is to be paid to multiple trustees, that fee is to be equitably apportioned between them based upon services performed and responsibilities assumed.

Selection of Corporate Fiduciary: St. Louis requests the Court consider appointing a corporate Trustee other than Wells Fargo Bank, based upon the following:

- St. Louis makes this request based on the language of the conditional acceptance filed by Wells Fargo, setting up a condition precedent the entry of a court order authorizing compensation to Wells Fargo at .75% per year and determining that this compensation be awarded solely to Wells Fargo with no portion of it being allocated to St. Louis;
- Wells Fargo's conditional acceptance makes it clear that if the Court enters an order determining reasonable compensation to be less than .75% or allocating any portion thereof to St. Louis, then in either event, Wells Fargo will decline to act as Co-Trustee;
- The above being the case, consideration must be given to the appointment of an alternate corporate Co-Trustee;
- The total lack of cooperation shown by Wells Fargo in this matter to date, coupled with adversarial positions it has taken against St. Louis as the appointing and acting Trustee of the Trust, give a clear indication that Wells Fargo has done the very thing which a trustee is clearly prohibited from doing under California law: placing its own individual interests above those of the trust beneficiaries;
- Instead of reaching out to St. Louis to ask how the Co-Trustees could cooperate to best benefit the Binghams, Wells Fargo set to work to assure that all fees based on a corporate fee schedule be paid to it alone; to wrest control of the administration of the Trust from St. Louis; and to seek appointment as conservator of the estates of the Binghams, notwithstanding the fact that the Binghams nominated St. Louis as conservator of both of their respective estates;
- Wells Fargo's consistent pattern of recalcitrance and non-cooperation calls into serious question whether Wells Fargo should in fact act as Co-Trustee even if the conditions precedent specified in its conditional acceptance were satisfied;
- Prior to the hearing of this petition, St. Louis will submit to the Court the proposals of three alternate corporate fiduciaries to be considered by the Court in making its orders.

Memorandum of Points and Authorities in Support of Reply to Petition for Instructions and Petition for Interpretation filed by Wells Fargo Bank, etc., was filed by David St. Louis on 3/14/2012.

Declaration of Linda Gist was filed by David St. Louis on 3/14/2012, stating in sum that she was the Binghams' office manager at Bingham Toyota for 13 years until her retirement in 2010; she worked with Mr. Bingham on a daily basis and become close to him and his wife; during that time she was very involved in the Binghams' financial affairs, both corporate and personal; during 2009 and 2010, she had numerous discussions with Mr. Bingham concerning who should be appointed as trustees of the family trust, whose assets were held and managed at that time by Bank of America with Jarrod Martinez as financial advisor; when Mr. Martinez left Bank of America the Binghams dissolved their long-term relationship with Bank of America and moved to Wells Fargo; this transition caused the Binghams to give consideration to appointing Wells Fargo as their co-trustee; in her discussions with Mr. Bingham, they agreed that if he were to appoint a corporate fiduciary he should also appoint an individual in whom he had trust and confidence to watch over the corporate fiduciary and to monitor its activities and participate in trust decisions; she recommended appointing Edward Hashim, his longtime CPA, and David St. Louis, his longtime friend and confidant; ultimately, Mr. and Mrs. Bingham decided to appoint Mr. St. Louis to act together with Wells Fargo Bank as co-trustee.

~Please see additional page~

Declaration of Paul T. Chambers, Esq., was filed by David St. Louis on 3/14/2012 stating in sum:

- He has been Byrum Bingham's personal attorney since approximately 1992 and handled his estate planning matters since 1996; he prepared the Trust the Binghams executed, and they subsequently transferred all of the Binghams' assets into the trust;
- In the original trust and all subsequent amendments, the Binghams were the initial co-trustees [declaration lists all persons named as co-trustees in 9 trust amendments]; in approximately November 2005, declarant spoke to Mr. and Mrs. Bingham with regard to compensation payable to the successor trustee appointed at that time, and explained to them that his understanding of the usual percentages charged by professional trustees was ~1/2 to 1% of the value of the trust estate per year; declarant's notes indicate Mr. Bingham did not have any objection to this;
- In the 9th Amendment to the trust dated 6/30/2010, Mr. Bingham substituted Wells Fargo in the place of Bank of America as successor trustee, and the reason given to declarant for doing this was that the person Mr. Bingham was associated with at Bank of America, Jarrod Martinez, had relocated to Wells Fargo Bank and that he liked Jarrod Martinez;
- He advised Mr. Bingham at this time that the trustee fees payable to a professional trustee would be ~1/2 to 1% of the value of the trust estate per year (or $255,335.00 per year based on $51,067,000 asset value), and Mr. Bingham expressed no objection [to] or concurrence in this fee; declarant does not recall any other discussions between himself and Mr. and Mrs. Bingham with regard to trustee fees;
- In March 2011, he met with Mr. and Mrs. Bingham to review their estate planning and make certain amendments, in which some of the beneficiaries were changed and the amounts payable to his daughter were increased; in addition, Mr. Bingham told him he wanted David St. Louis, his long-time friend, appointed as co-trustee with Wells Fargo Bank to watch over the bank and monitor their activities; they had discussions with regard to appointing a "trust protector" and Mr. Bingham suggested that he become his trust protector; he told Mr. Bingham that he felt uncomfortable doing this but would do so if he was adamant about it; Mr. Bingham said he would get back to declarant with regard to this matter but declarant heard nothing further;
- At the time of the appointment of David St. Louis as co-trustee, they had no discussions with regard to the amount of the sharing of trustee fees.

First Supplement to (1) Petition for Instructions Regarding Allocation of Co-Trustees' Responsibilities and for Order allowing Establishment of Trust Account; and (2) Petition for Interpretation of Trust Provision Governing Trustee Compensation filed 3/16/2012 states the Petition is supplemented as follows:

Co-Trustees' discussions regarding fiduciary compensation:

On 3/1/2012, Wells Fargo and its counsel met with Co-Trustee St. Louis and his attorney Robert Sullivan, Jr. to discuss the contents of the Petition, the proposed allocation of responsibilities between the Co-Trustees, and the proposed means of determining each Co-Trustee's compensation for services to be rendered by them in administering the Trust estate;

- The Co-Trustees were unable to reach a final agreement as to any of the responsibilities, though a consensus developed as to allocation of most of them; St. Louis was unwilling to agree to any division of responsibilities unless the parties also reached agreement as to trust compensation;
- Wells Fargo disagrees with St. Louis' interpretation of the Tenth Amendment to the Trust which concerns the Co-Trustee's right to compensation;
- Paragraph 11.01(B) of the Tenth Amendment to Trust provides:
 - Upon assumption of the duties as Successor Trustee, any individual or corporate Co-Trustee or Trustees hereunder shall receive compensation for services rendered in an amount not to exceed the prevailing fees then being charged by corporate Trustees in the city wherein or the city nearest to where the Trustee is located for the administration of accounts of a character similar to this one, provided, however, that compensation to any individual Successor Trustee or Co-Trustee shall not exceed a reasonable amount for services actually rendered.
- Wells Fargo alleges that St. Louis interprets this paragraph to mean that a single fee will be allowable and paid to the Co-Trustees who then must divide that fee between them; St. Louis proposes that the Co-Trustees divide the ad valorem fee [fee according to the value of the assets], which is 75 basis points (already a 25% discount from Wells Fargo's schedule fee), such that St. Louis receives 1/3, or 25 basis points; given the current value of the Trust estate, 25 basis points would amount to annual compensation to St. Louis of ~$120,000.00;
- Wells Fargo respectfully disagrees with this interpretation and submits that under Paragraph 11.01(B) of the Tenth Amendment, the means for determining its compensation is not tied to the compensation that St. Louis is entitled to receive for his services; Wells Fargo submits that the language stating that "compensation to any individual Successor Trustee or Co-Trustee shall not exceed a reasonable amount for services actually rendered" supports the proposition that St. Louis should be compensated on an hourly basis;
- Presently, Wells Fargo has petitioned the Court to utilize its published fee schedules to determine its compensation, and proposes it receive compensation in the amount of 75 basis points, which equates to the annual rate of 0.75% of the market value of the managed assets, which reflects a 25% discount on the fees outlined in the Elder Services Fee Schedule (copy attached as Exhibit E to Petition);
- Given the substantial value and complexity of the assets comprising the Trust and the significant services and efforts that will be required of Wells Fargo to administer these assets in conjunction with St. Louis, Wells Fargo cannot administer the Trust for less than 75 basis points;

Petitioner states that if the Court interprets Paragraph 11.01(B) to provide for a single fee to both Co-Trustees which they, in turn, must apportion between them, Wells Fargo amends its request for compensation and instead requests total aggregate compensation to both Co-Trustees in an amount not less than 100 basis points, or 1.00% of the market value of the managed assets.

*First Supplement to Wells Fargo's Petition for Instructions, continued:Monthly rental proceeds from the commercial tenant:

- The Trust includes a commercial lot located in Clovis; the lot is the subject of triple-net lease that produces income of ~$65,000.00 per month; prior to appointment of Wells Fargo and St. Louis as Co-Trustees, these rental proceeds were deposited each month into a Bingham trust account at Wells Fargo; out of the rental proceeds and per the terms of the Elder Care Services Agreement signed by the Bingham's (copy attached as Exhibit D to Petition), Wells Fargo paid the Bingham's expenses upon receipt of their bills and invoices; that is, Bingham's would provide Wells Fargo with their bills and Wells Fargo would issue payment to the appropriate vendor or service provider;
- After the Court's appointment of the Co-Trustees and the Court's appointment of St. Louis as Conservator of the Person of both Mr. and Mrs. Bingham, St. Louis assumed responsibility for forwarding the Bingham's bills to Wells Fargo, which Wells Fargo then paid per previously established custom;
- Without notice to Wells Fargo, St. Louis began depositing the rent checks from the commercial tenant into a checking account at Bank of America titled in the name of the Bingham Trust;
- Wells Fargo alleges that St. Louis deposited the rent checks for December 2011, January 2012, and February 2012 into the Bank of America account;
- Wells Fargo became concerned about the funds given the historical practice of depositing them with Wells Fargo and the Bingham Trust instrument requiring all monies and personal property coming into possession of the Co-Trustees be held in the custody of the corporate or national banking association trustee;
- Wells Fargo made multiple inquiries to St. Louis regarding the whereabouts of the rent checks, but St. Louis did not respond;
- In February 2012, Wells Fargo discovered not only that St. Louis deposited the rent checks in the Bingham Trust Account at Bank of America, but that in January 2012 St. Louis had withdrawn $70,000.00 from the Bank of America account, in the form of two cashier's checks, one for $45,000.00 payable to St. Louis individually and one for $25,000.00 payable to St. Louis as "Trustee" (copies of checks attached as Exhibit F);
- Further, it appeared that at least one of the checks was deposited in St. Louis' law firm's trust account for client funds, rather than an account designated in the name of the Bingham Trust, where the funds were commingled with client funds, all in violation of Probate Code § 16009;
- St. Louis had not disclosed these withdrawals or deposits to Wells Fargo, and Wells Fargo was unaware of any explanation for them;
- Upon learning of the withdrawals and not having heard from St. Louis, Wells Fargo sent correspondence to the commercial tenant instructing it to mail future rent checks to Wells Fargo as Co-Trustee; and a copy was sent to St. Louis and his attorney, Robert Sullivan (copy of letter attached as Exhibit G);
- Wells Fargo also sent correspondence to Bank of America requesting it send the monthly statements for the Trust checking account to Wells Fargo as Co-Trustee (copy of letter attached as Exhibit H); Wells Fargo amended its instruction to direct Bank of America to send statements to both Wells Fargo and St. Louis as Co-Trustees (copy of letter attached as Exhibit I);
- Following Wells Fargo's letters to the commercial tenant and to Bank of America, vociferous objections were made by St. Louis and his counsel; Wells Fargo proposed a meeting of Co-Trustees to discuss the issues, including the $70,000 withdrawal and the matters in the Petition for Instructions;

~Please see additional page~

First Supplement to Wells Fargo's Petition for Instructions, continued:

- The meeting occurred on 3/1/2012, during which St. Louis acknowledged he had withdrawn the $70,000 and deposited the funds into his client trust account, stating he paid a number of bills related to the Bingham Trust out of his client trust account, and he provided an informal accounting of his use of those funds (copy attached as Exhibit J); however, the informal accounting did not include a specific check number and certain other unidentified checks, and St. Louis did not provide copies of the bills he paid or proof of the $2,000.00 advance he personally gave the Bingham Trust and for which he reimbursed himself by a specific check number;
- St. Louis also provided an informal accounting of the Bingham Trust at Bank of America (copy attached as Exhibit K);
- Although St. Louis says he transferred the $70,000 because he needed to pay a number of the Bingham's expenses, at the time of the withdrawals he had been [presenting] and continued to present numerous bills of the Bingham Trust to Wells Fargo for payment, all of which Wells Fargo paid without delay;
- At no time had St. Louis advised Wells Fargo that he needed to pay or was paying additional expenses of the Bingham Trust or that payment of such expenses for some reason could not be made by Wells Fargo; even if St. Louis had a legitimate reason to pay certain bills without the involvement of his Co-Trustee, Wells Fargo believes he could have made arrangements to pay those bills directly from the Bingham Trust account at Bank of America;
- Wells Fargo respectfully submits there was no satisfactory justification for St. Louis' personal withdrawal of Trust funds, and his subsequent deposit of those funds in a non-trust, commingled account;
- Wells Fargo believes that following the 3/1/2012 meeting and at Wells Fargo's insistence, St. Louis returned the balance of the Bingham Trust funds on deposit in his client trust account to the Bingham Trust account at Bank of America;
- St. Louis has taken the position that Wells Fargo is not an incumbent trustee of the Trust due to its conditional acceptance filed on 12/21/2011; on behalf of St. Louis, Attorney Sullivan sent a letter to the commercial tenant directing the tenant to send all future rent checks to St. Louis (copy of letter attached as Exhibit L); counsel for the tenant responded by letter on 3/13/2012 (copy of letter attached as Exhibit M) suggesting the tenant would file an interpleader action in the event the Co-Trustees cannot agree to whom rent checks should be sent; however, the Trust instrument directs that all monies and personal property coming into possession of the Co-Trustees shall be held in the custody of the corporate or national banking association trustee;
- Although Wells Fargo's relationship with St. Louis has been somewhat tumultuous, Wells Fargo would like to resolve the matter of the allocation of responsibilities between the Co-Trustees and believes that the allocation presented in the Petition is reasonable and in the best interest of the Bingham Trust and the Trust;
- St. Louis, however, will not agree to Wells Fargo's proposal unless Wells Fargo will agree to divide the requested 75 basis points such the St. Louis receives 1/3, or 25 basis points; given the current value of the Trust estate, 25 basis points would amount to annual compensation of ~$120,000.00 to St. Louis.

Petitioner Wells Fargo respectfully requests the Court grant its Petition for Instructions and order the relief requested therein.

1. Inventory and Appraisal filed 3-23-10 and Amended I&A filed 9-13-11 appear to contain items appraised by Petitioner on Attachment 1 that should have been appraised by Probate Referee on Attachment 2 per Probate Code §8901:

- Warrant dated 11-15-06 valued at $13,618.19
- Warrant dated 5-21-07 valued at $232.61
- Warrant dated 7-3-07 valued at $18.41

Note: Descriptions of warrants state: "paid to Roli Elsotari (per Order of Fresno County Superior Court, sustained on appeal, this asset belongs to estate)."

Note: Petition addresses the warrants at #3 and #5, as judgments and states interest is accruing and Petitioner plans to levy Ms. Elsotari's wages to enforce the judgment.

Declaration filed 9-13-11 states the warrants were properly inventoried. At the time of his death, these warrants represented wages and vacation compensation owed to Decedent. They were paid to Roli Elsotary pursuant to a beneficiary designation, and Petitioner sought judicial relief for an order that she be required to pay those monies back to the estate.

Examiner notes that items such as debts and notes payable are typically appraised by the Probate Referee. If, at the time of death, these items were not warrants, but wages, they should be listed appropriately in whatever form or character they were at the date of death. If they later became debts owed to the estate via judgment or warrant, that is not an inventory item. However, for purposes of continuing this review, this explanation is accepted by Examiner.

2. Inventory and Appraisal filed 3-23-10 includes "TD Ameritrade Investment Account" valued at $108,013.63 by Administrator on Attachment 1. Petition states this is a money market account, which means that appraisal on Attachment 1 is appropriate per Probate Code §8901(d); however, the Petition further states that Decedent had "shorted" a number of stocks against this account and Administrator repaid the loan by purchasing the stocks that had been shorted by Decedent and selling them the same day at a gain of $29,394.36. The court may require further information regarding whether appraisal of this item as a cash asset (including loan and repayment) is appropriate or whether the loan within the asset warrants appraisal by Probate Referee.

Note: Minute Order 4-28-11 states Atty Rindlisbacher represents the account was properly accounted for; however, the minute order does not reflect action by the court on the representation. The item remains noted.

Declaration filed 9-13-11 states the item is properly appraised on Attachment 1.

3. Need Allowance or Rejection of Creditor's Claims:

- Bank of America $311.50 (filed 8-27-07)
- Bank of America $40,978.89 (filed 8-27-07)

Note: Petition states Bank of America was paid $37,000.00; however, no Allowance or Satisfaction has been filed.

Note: Petition states Bank of America claim for $311.50 is still pending.

Note: Declaration filed 8-18-11 provides a letter from Bank of America indicating settlement and receipt of $37,000.00; however, the account number referenced on the letter does not match the account number referenced on either B of A creditor's claim. Need clarification.

Declaration filed 9-13-11 states Petitioner is researching to find out why the account numbers don't match, and the smaller claim is still pending.

As of 1-25-11, nothing further has been filed.

4. Petition appears to use net figures instead of gross figures for calculation of gains and losses (vehicles, personal property). This affects the balance of the account.

Declaration filed 9-13-11 states Petitioner is correcting the accounting to use gross figures and will be filing an amended and corrected account.

As of 1-25-11, nothing further has been filed.

5. Petition states the Guaranty Bank balance was transferred to the California State Controller's Office and Petitioner is submitting paperwork to collect this amount. Court may require additional information.

Declaration filed 9-13-11 states this item is pending. Petitioner was recently notified that there may be another asset that was previously unknown that may be a part of the estate.

As of 1-25-11, nothing further has been filed.

Need status of pending return of funds, plus status of discovery of the previously unknown asset.

Petition for [Approval for Passport]

Age: 4 years DOB: 6/28/2007		GENOVEVE SOTO, maternal grandmother/guardian, is petitioner. Father: JUAN CARLOS Mother: YOLANDA ROMERO Paternal grandparents: Unknown Maternal grandfather: Angel Hernandez Petitioner states she needs to obtain a passport for the minor so that they may travel to Mexico.	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS: 1. It appears that this petition is unnecessary. According to the U.S. Department of State's Web page a guardian can obtain a passport for a minor under the age of 18 by including the Order Appointing Guardian (along with the other necessary documentation) with the Passport Application. Note: An order has not been submitted.

Atty Grover, Kelly L. (pro per – mother)
 Atty Brown, Kim (pro per – maternal aunt/Petitioner)
 Atty Brown, Anthony (pro per – maternal uncle/Petitioner)
 Atty Grover, Evelyn (pro per – maternal aunt/Competing Petitioner)

Petition for Appointment of Guardian of the Person (Prob. C. 1510) (as to Kim & Anthony Brown)

Amiah, 4 DOB: 9/8/2007		KIM BROWN and ANTHONY BROWN, maternal aunt and uncle, are Petitioners. EVELYN GROVER, maternal aunt, was appointed Temporary Guardian on 12/27/11. TEMPORARY EXPIRES 04/02/12 – personally served 02/02/12 Father (Jaedyn): MICHAEL BROWN – declaration of due diligence filed 02/07/12 Father (Amiah): JAMES NAPOLEAN – personally served 02/02/12 Mother: KELLY GROVER – consent and waiver of notice filed 01/31/12 Paternal grandparents (all): UNKNOWN Maternal grandfather: JAMES GROVER – personally served 02/02/12 Maternal grandmother: SHARON TRIHUP – personally served 02/02/12 Petitioners state that mother recently gave birth to another baby and mother and baby both tested positive for cocaine. Mother is now attending a rehab program. The current temporary guardian is unfit. Evelyn Grover had her own children removed from her care by CPS and her husband (Kim Brown and Kelly Grover's brother) is on Parole and has a lengthy criminal history. Petitioners state that they are able to provide a stable and safe home for the children. Mother is in agreement with them being appointed as guardians of the children. Declaration of mother, Kelly Grover, filed 02/07/12 states that she wants Petitioners Kim Brown and Anthony Brown to be appointed as guardians of her children. When she made the original decision to leave the children with Evelyn, she was under the influence of drugs. Now that she has been in rehab, she realizes that it would be in the children's best interest if Kim and Anthony Brown are appointed as guardians as they are financially capable, stable and will assist the children to meet their needs. Court Investigator Charlotte Bien's report was filed 03/21/12.	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS: 1. Declaration of Due Diligence filed 02/07/12 states that attempts to serve Michael Brown (Jaedyn's father) were unsuccessful. He hung up when reached and has not answered his phone since. If diligence is not found, need proof of personal service at least 15 days before the hearing of Notice of Hearing with a copy of the Petition for Appointment of Guardian of the Person or Consent and Waiver of Notice for: - Michael Brown (Jaedyn's father) 2.
